Growing up on Buckeye Avenue as a child, I remember Mrs (and Mr) Wright fondly. In fact I was mentioning to one of my friends, that owns Dachshunds, a great neighbor I had that also owned the breed. May the Souls of the Faithfully Departed Rest In Peace

She had a wonderful laugh, and in spite of her many losses, she remained a good friend to my mother, Dorothy Lee. I remember how much Mom enjoyed making noodles with her in the kitchen of Cox Memorial.
