I spent many days of my childhood at the Henthorn's with Phil and Mark. Neil always had a calmness around him even when we were being loud and making noise all hours of the night. Many great memories at the Henthorns house on Cherrywood and I will remember those always. Neil is truly at peace now, many prayers for Twila, Phil, Mark and Owen during this time.

Twila, Philip and Mark and all, I am so sorry for your loss. He helped me so much when I started at Central as a new Christian. He was a quiet man who had lots to tell you if you listened. He was a great man of God and is now with his savior who he served faithfully. We know he has eternity on his side now, but we know your sorrow at his loss but have hope in Jesus, you will see him again. God bless you, love you , I'm so sorry
