If I had to give one word to describe Diane, I would say "faithful." She stayed faithful to her commitments, her work, to God, to her family and to her friends. She served the WHC choir faithfully for YEARS and is now recognized by her heavenly Father for her sacrifices. For her life to be taken so suddenly shocked us all, but those whose heart is the Lord's will see her again. May God comfort her family and all those who loved her in this time of grief. I'll see you soon, Diane!

Diane, Sorry we did not see more of you. It seemed like the only time we would see you is at family reunion or at someone's funeral. This is not goodbye, but we will some day see you again. Say hello to everyone that is there. Miss you and we do love you. Your Cousin Kathy Evans

You left in such a hurry, you didn't say goodbye. So instead of telling you goodbye, I'll tell you see you later, I'll be along in a bit. Love you so much, gonna miss our discussions and your phone calls.
