If variety is truly the spice of life, then Nancy's life was indeed very spicy. I got to know Nancy when Tanya and I were in Flingers. We would car pool and, when Nancy was driving, there was always lots of laughter and orneriness. I'll never forget the time she got her car stuck on the railroad track because she tried to drive across the tracks when the crossing gate was down and it came through the open window. She was always a hoot to be around. I saw her a few years ago and she just beamed when talking about her husband, Sammy. I hope she continues to entertain everyone in heaven. Such a special person!
