I just found out that Frank has left us. My husband, Steve, and I were friends with him and his wife, Judy in Colorado for many years. I met Frank when I worked for Columbine JDS in the 1990s. He was a brilliant man and a darn good musician. I cannot listen to Mark Knopfler's guitar work without thinking of Frank. Wonderful people, Judy and Frank. We had some great times together back in the day. I hadn't heard from him in a long time and decided to check his Facebook page yesterday to see what he and Judy had been up to. We are devastated. Much love to Judy and to their, son, Frank the 3rd. We are so very sorry, Sorry for your loss. Frank was a great guy. He spent many days at our home during school years.
