Andrew Christopher Kling

FEB 9, 1966 - MAR 4, 2022

Andrew Christopher Kling, 56, of Frazeyburg, Ohio died Friday morning March 4, 2022 at Licking Memorial Hospital in Newark.

Born February 9, 1966 in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, he was a son of the late Richard and Mary (Ardis) "P.R." Kling. Andrew worked for several companies until he was disabled in 2014. He loved putting model cars together, fishing, cookouts, going to antique stores or flea markets and playing video games with his family, especially Wii bowling. Andrew loved the outdoors. When he was younger, he loved going to the cabin, called Cycle Lake, in Northern Wisconsin.

Surviving is his loving wife, Lisa (Robbins) Kling whom he married August 29, 2020; daughter, Kayla Heidemann of Wisconsin; two step-daughters, Emma Wheeler of Frazeyburg and Amanda Walpole of Nashport; step-son, Daniel Wheeler of Newark; two step-grandchildren, Clayton Walpole and Payton Walpole; three brothers, Nick Kling of Virginia, Pete Kling of Wisconsin and Brian Kling of Wisconsin; two sisters, Beth Kling of Wisconsin and Sandy Sanders of Wisconsin; brother-in-law, Sean Robbins of Frazeyburg; several nieces and nephews, Rachel Williams, Betsy Kling, Ben Kling, Victoria Kling, Alex Kling and Malcom Kling.

There will be no visitation or services at this time.

The Frazeyburg Chapel of Vensil & Chute Funeral Home is assisting with the arrangements.
