John will be missed by so many by his kind ways and his big heart. I will miss his phone calls for one and he always finished his call with GOD Bless, well John I know right now you are being blessed. He was a mentor to my son and his best friend, they did a lot together and yes they got into trouble at times too, but they really were buddies. When needed they had each others backs. I know my son will feel alone at times now not having his side kick. May God Bless and comfort Joy and stay close to her. I hope John your feeling all the comforts of heaven, you will be missed by us all.
