May the love of friends and family carry you through your grief. Sallie was a kind, thoughtful, giving and caring person. She was always ready to pitch in as a volunteer to work in the kitchen for church events open to the public and to clean and decorate the church for holidays and open house events. Sallie loved to sing with the church choir and she enjoyed her time teaching the children. Sallie attended prayer meetings and Bible studies and pot-luck luncheons. I believe she was a faithful servant to God and He will meet her with open arms. She will be missed!

Sallie and Don were our neighbors on 11th St. in Newark when I was a teenager. They were the nicest people! Don with his pipe, Sallie always smiling. I'll always remember them with their cars, warm greetings and special time spent chatting over the fence! Over the years I would see them out in stores or restaurants. They always greeted me with the same smiles and hugs. They were truly special people in my life. Now together again, God has you in His arms.

To the family of Sallie. Thank you for the time that I got to spend with Sallie. She was a very dear lady, and I enjoyed beading bracelets and necklaces and doing other things with her. She is in heaven with her husband and other family members and she is not in pain any longer. Fly high with the angels Sallie until we meet again one day. Barb
