Enjoyed getting to spend time with Jane at the nursing home after so many years. I remember how thrilled that she was when I got her to remember that she gave me my first real job at the store. I will sure miss her.

Jane-You were a special lady and our family will miss you so much. Remember, every time I would call to talk to my mom, she would say, "I knew you were going to call because I'm with Jane." We would all laugh for a good 5 minutes since it really did seem like I knew when you two were together and would call. I know my momma is going to miss you dearly. We are so happy that you are with the love of your life again and no longer in any pain. Keep your eyes on my mom and try to talk her into moving here to live with me, ok?
