Amy, Lou and family, I have to say that God always takes the good ones first. Adabelle was a sweet, gentle, caring soul who's face lit up when she talked about her family. I never met an angel on earth until meeting her. Please know she's watching over you now. Love, Arley Allen

What a sweet lady! So many memories of her at Mt. Pleasant. I can see her standing with Grandpa to lead the singing and that smile that lit up her face when she bragged on those grandkids! Blessings on each of you as you grieve your loss and find your way of celebrating her legacy forward. Continued prayers and always, love!
