Another wonderful woman from the greatest generation has taken her place beside our creator. My sincere condolences Janet, Carolyn, Stan, Dean, and to your spouses and children. Losing your mother and grandmother is one sorrow that will only ease with time. She will remain in your hearts, memories, and in the way you parent and live your lives. Ida Belles words of wisdom and love for her family will always resonate in how you live your lives. The Ludwig kids were truly blessed to have had two devoted parents in Irving and Ida Belle. Now is the time that your parents are reunited in heaven where they join the many, many other Frazeysburg parents of the 50s, 60s, and 70s who made us the people we are today, a generation who understood hard work, respect, community, and the love of God. We, the kids of Frazeysburg were truly blessed to have grown up living with the safety and mentorship of townspeople the likes of Ida Belle, one truly remarkable woman. Its her turn for eternal rest.

She will always be remembered for her quiet, calm and caring nature and for her beautiful and gentle smile. Always there for our family in a medical emergency or time of need. Our thoughts and prayers to the family of Ida Belle. We met at Christian Fellowship where she and her loving husband Irvin served the Lord and was such a vital part of the church. My husband, son and I served on the kitchen committee with them and they sure knew how to put a breakfast or dinner together. I learned so much from her. She was the first to stop by when you were ill with orange juice and aspirin. I pray God will surround you with His love, comfort and peace.

to the family children that I had the honor of meeting when I volunteered this past Thursday at the MORRISON HOUSE. may the comfort be that she suffers no more and that she certainly had a full life. I also was a GOOD SAMARITAN graduate but from the class of 1967 and I am sure are paths did cross during her working years at the hospital. she will be remembered at our yearly reunion this JUNE. GOD BLESS

Ida Belle, you were the very best neighbor a new mother could possibly have. You extracted a tooth pick from a bare foot, gave allergy shots, and sage advice when a loved one had cancer. You were so kind and patient with a little boy when he picked all your beautiful flowers for his mother. Only a few of the wonderful memories I carry of you. I know you are at peace in God's hands, but you will be missed.
