In loving memory of a wonderful person. We will love you and miss you always. I met you at the lowest point in my life. You and pat excepted me and my children as your own and went over and beyond to make sure we wod be alright. I'll never be able to thank you enough for that. I wouldn't be where I am today wothout you being in my life. You will always be in our hearts.♥ Love, Jamie, Jazzy & Travis

So, so sorry to hear about your mom and although I didn't know her I understand everything you are going through. Hang in there and remember she will always be in your heart. She will never leave you even though she isn't there she will always be there. Your mom will always be your rock even though she on to a better life she will be watching over you. Take care and be thinking of you.
