Bev...I just can't believe that your gone. I can remember the first time I met you and from that day forward you were my friend...the best friend a person could ever have. Your such a giving,loving,caring person. I will miss that from you. But I will always have the memories of New years Eves...a couple cookouts....you and Jim wedding day and of course.....our very adventurous first NFL game together (your first) even though your Packers weren't playing you had so much fun and I am so grateful that you said yes and that you gave me the chance to give you that experience. It rained so hard that day we couldn't see any of the signs or the road and we missed our exit and ended up on a different direction....we laughed so hard but we finally made it (before kick off)and we had so much fun. It was the best day of my life....thank you again. Love you my girlie friend... I'm going to miss seeing you. Your friend, Kimmy
