This is a sad day for everyone who knew Smiley. I have many fond memories while we were in High School, Smiley driving Sweet Pea and me in a 36 Ford. Every time I see an old Plymouth, I think of Smiley and our adventures, and always will. It was a fun time for all of us. Our thoughts and prayers are with Pam, and his many family and friends. May he Rest In Peace.

Pam - It's been a lot of years since I saw you. I'm so, so sorry to hear of your loss. What good memories we all have of each other. "Smiley" was the appropriate nickname for him, wasn't it? I remember his old green car that he loved and cruised around in. Please know that I'm thinking of you and yours as you tell him goodbye. Hope to get a chance to see you one of these days soon. Hugs to you.
