Dear Mary Lee, Leanne and Jeff and families, What a special, special man. As you know, my Dad and Cecil were just the best of friends. I am so glad that I had the chance to work with Cec and to get to spend time with him. I will always remember with great fondness how he would almost 'tuck me in' to get some sleep while we worked together on midnight turn and then make sure that I was awake before the bosses started coming in. What a sweet, sweet man. To have shared in his life even in such a small way is such an honor to me. Now I can think of him and Dad laughing it up in Heaven, waiting for us to join them. May God's Love hold you strong during this time of sadness.
