I loved Dane like a grandpa, even though we weren't blood related he cared and loved me through the hardest times of my life as a child. He did everything he ever could to make sure I had everything i needed or wanted. He will always be dear to my heart and ill never forget what he's done. He was nothing but generous and loving and caring to me and my mother. I'm forever grateful to have had him in my life. So much love to his family, and everyone who lost this amazing man.
