Dad, I'm so sorry for everything that your missing in this life of mine that somehow I have created. I need your guidance so badly, because for some reason it's really hard without you.... I know... It's time for me to pre-adult. I just wish I would have comprehended all the things you ever said to me. Im going to find Todd one day and try to have a memorial for you and mom. I will always look because it still don't feel real. I Love You! We all miss you.
