I am so sorry for your loss. We will keep your family in our prayers. Maxine will be missed, she was such a good person. I talked to her several times over the past few years. Whenever it would snow I would go over and clear her driveway for her. She would sit in the chair by the window and waive while she watched me. When another one of our neighbors had knee surgery she would go over to her house and check on her and see how she was doing. She will be missed in the neighborhood.
