Sandy and FamilyI met Fannie through my in-laws Bob and Reva McClure. I remember many a friday night spent at the Steak-n-Stein for dinners. It would be Bob, Reva, Fannie, Norma Cunningham, Bun ,Sean, Morgan and I . those were truly some of the best friday nights of my life . Fannie was a wonderful,sweet,generous kind loving lady. How lucky for her family to have had her for that many years.

I'm so sorry to hear of Fran's passing. Kept half expecting her to return to the Dresden Senior Center for lunch and a game of Hausey. She was a sweetheart and a live-wire. She used to sass me, just to keep me on my toes (all in good fun). Loved seeing her spend time with her fiends. Will miss her, tremendously.

Dear Nancy, Sandy and Tom - What wonderful memories you will have of a kind and giving mother. She was so warm and friendly to all, giving words of comfort and advice wherever needed. I will never forget her kindness to me. It's hard to say good-bye right now, but it will be a beautiful experience as the days and years come and you find her everywhere around you. I pray that you will treasure those moments. Rest in His peace, Frannie.

Oh dear, the memories! So much time spent at Fanny and Junior's during my childhood! Playing Shanghai and laughing, laughing, laughing. Always the consummate hostess, Fanny could be counted on to make us welcome. I remember watching David and Sandy grow up, and their serious discussions about David's favorite candy, the Hoochie bar, which Sandy referred to as an Archie bar. Thank you, Fanny, for being a big part of the happy background of our youth.
