William it's your mom...I have been talking to You so much here lately and the smile you had on your face made my day every time I looked at you or the sound of your voice just melted me every time I heard it....I just don't understand anything ...it's breaking me every minute of my day. I wish I could have been there for you bubby and I deeply apologize for everything that has happened in our lifeyou kids are my world and my everything breath, but I can't change the past all I can do is change my today. I can't handle knowing that you were miserable and felt alone because of all the chaos in your life so I promise that after all this is said and done with I will give this promise to you, your sister Emily , and Johnny that I will change in my whole life, get help and work to be in your sister and brothers life until the end and so on . I give you my word buggly that I will change my life you. I am sorry that this decision was to late to realize what was going on with you will will....but I am just glad that you can back into my life and forgave me . I love you so so much William please always remember that. I am so so sorry good I am sorryplease guide me through this will cause I know u are watching over me and we will get through is together no matter where you are at. I love you baby... .love you both Emily and Johnny and I hope you guys will see that everyone makes mistakes but the mistakes that people make doesn't define who they truly are as a person....I love you all.....Rest In Peace baby and know that I will see you again one day.love you, your Mom.....Sarahp.s I love you all the way to the heaven and back down to the groundlol didn't u just tell me the day u left memom I am not little any more..... Then you smile and told me u loved me I will never forget that .
