She raised amazing children and made it look enjoyable. I loved how involved she was with her grandchildren too. Mrs. Nestleroad was a joy to know. Prayers to all as they miss her. I agree with those who say she is with Jacob. That would be a gift.

So sorry to read of Mary Ann's death. I didn't know Mary Ann very well but whenever I saw her, she was always smiling and laughing. I saw her many times pulling a grandchild in a wagon up the street and always smiling. This is how I will remember her.

Mary Ann, a woman I've know and admired for many years as a rock of strength and guidance for good and proper Catholic family values that were passed on to her very loving and cheritable family. What a legacy to leave for all to see and admire such as this gratuitous family. Well done good and faithful servant of the Lord, I'm sure you will be richly rewarded in heaven!
