Grandma we already miss you soo much. No words can describe the emptiness we feel without your physical presense. You were here taking care of us your whole life even in your final days you were comforting us. You left so gracefully telling us we would be okay and as we formed a prayer circle and surrounded you with love and peace and a joyful sound of laughter from all as to how true it was that you had so much energy in life. I hope that we all take the loving and giving spirit you have shown us and we show that to one another. We will all be missing that in our lives now and we need to show one another the extra care that you have shown us. I will be looking for your spirit in all things and i will do my best to watch over the family. I love you forever and ever. I will miss spending time with you during your shows, your love for gardening, our coffee talks and most of all your hugs. Every goodbye ended with a hug and i love you. Sending you my hugs and love.
