Our deepest condolences to Iris and family. Having lived in Brownsville 15 years, I came to know Jack. This man made a lasting impression on me, and my family. I knew that, regardless of the circumstances, I could show up on his doorstep day or night for help and he would be the first out the door to help someone. Jack was a good, country man. He took a person's word and a handshake would honestly seal a deal. He was always direct and honest; a rare thing nowadays. Jack always waved or said hello as he drove by. What a rare and precious individual Jack was. I valued his friendship and made sure our children knew they could go to him for help. He had a wonderful sense of humor and a warm and genuine smile. The community lost a man who truly cared about all of us. If we were snowed in, Jack would appear out of the blizzard to make sure you could travel. I simply cannot say how much this man meant to our community. God Bless Jack Hedges.
