Neolas family, you have my deepest condolences at the loss of your mother. Neola and Eve were our babysitters on Leonard Ave in Zanesville when I was young. I saw Neola at WalMart about a year ago and spent a few moments talking with her. I think I met her girls when they were young. I know I spent many visits with Red and Willie. They were very special people, as were Eve and your mom. Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you.

JeanAnn and family - I only had the opportunity to meet your mom on just a few occasions but she carried a special place in my heart because she was your mom. Please know that we are lifting you, Randy, your dad, brother, sister and extended family up at this time. I wish we could be there with you at this time as you were for us when both Mom and Daddy passed. Loving you from NH,
