My heartfelt condolences to you all, I have the fondest childhood memories of spending countless hours at the Bumpus home playing and eating dinners with Carroll, Joann, Bonnie and Bobbi (and even before Brad was born). You know your Dad was a community father, there for any kid in town who needed encouragement or someone to look up to. His kindness resonated throughout Frazeysburg. I know I will forever hold the Bumpus family in such high regard, Carroll and Joann's love for the community will continue to resonate for many generations. My thoughts and prayers are with you.
