Aunt Donna was Josh Adams favorite Great Aunt and my biggest support, teacher and guidance counselor in how to appropriately raise a child with special needs. My guess is she taught her son, Adam West to look out for us too and we're forever thankful for both!

DJ my heart is broken with the loss of a wonderful friend and teacher. The things you have taught me I will never forget and I thank you for that. My mind says you are at peace now, no pain and finding the answers to those questions we had. What gets me threw the loss of someone I love and respect is knowing your leading the angels with the song of Amazing Grace because while you were here you were filled with Grace and definitely Amazing. Love and Miss you my friend
