Frances C. Levino

FEB 14, 1925 - DEC 19, 2016

On December 19, 2016 Frances C. (Bitonti) Levino passed peacefully from this earth and went to heaven to join her Lord. Frances was a Valentine's baby born on February 14, 1925 and the last surviving child of Maria (Roda) Bitonti and Salvatore Bitonti.

Frances was one of eleven children and was very family oriented from the beginning. She loved to dance, play the spoons and would sing in Italian whenever given the chance, even in the Church In The Mall in Heath Ohio, of which she was a member. Very proud of her heritage, Frances would often attend Italian festivals in Clarksburg West Virginia, her childhood home. Frances found great value in taking care of others and spent most of her life doing so, especially her family.

Frances was preceded in death by her loving husband, Reno Peter Levino, her sisters, Rose Fernandez, Mary Allevato, Flora Belotta, Sarah Lopez, Victoria Mazza, and Kathryn Fugo; brothers, Antonio Bitonti and James Bitonti, and two siblings who died in infancy.

Frances is survived by her daughter Rena (Rich)Egan of Sun City Center, Florida, and her son Rene (Evelyn) Levino of Granville, Ohio as well as her grandchildren; Robert (Mary) Levino of Brentwood, PA and their children Cecilia, Raiden, Laura, and Anthony; Nicholas Zollars of Youngwood, PA, Ryan Zollars of California, PA and his special friend Lexi Fogle, James Egan of Connellsville, PA, Robert Egan of McKees Rocks, PA, Lindsey Levino and Jesse Levino of Granville, Ohio, her God-daughters, Denise Le Sieur of Blythe, CA, Jenise Mamone of Huntington Beach, CA, and Mary Kay Colclaser of VA and FL, and many, many cousins, nephews and nieces. Her family will miss her presence, but rejoice in her eternal life with her Lord.

She was a wonderful aunt who played such a big part of my childhood. Her and my mom weren't just sisters, they were best friends. You lived 5 and 1/2 years and one day without her. I'm sure you two are dancing and singing together again.
