My prayers are with you and your family today and will be for the days and weeks ahead that God will comfort and sustain. It is so hard to lose a parent, especially a mother as gentle and kind as yours. If there is anything I remember about your mother is her patience and the way she was an example to the younger Christian women. She will be missed by so many.\r\n\r\nMany thoughts and prayers.\r\n\r\n\r\nRobin

Prayers and condolences from the Priors are with Brother Roger and all the family. One of our fond memories of Sister Decker is that we often sat in the row behind them at church. We watched her raise her family and saw the love, care, and affection she gave to each child. although her "homecoming" is a reward long sought, we recognize the stress it leaves with the family and will pray for God's strength to comfort over the coming hours. Sending our love.

Our prayers are with your dear family at this very difficult time in your lives. Sis Decker had such love, care and concern for each one of you. I cherish the many years I was privileged to labor with her in God's work. Often we shared "motherly thoughts" about raising children in a Godly home. I found her to have great insight and wisdom as a "mother in Zion". I will forever cherish my last visit with her a few weeks ago. With much love. ~ Sis Millie Stegmeier

My fondest memories with the Deckers were in my teen years and early 20s. I spent a lot of fun times at their house and we laughed a lot! But I appreciate Sis. Decker very much and am praying for your family. It's hard to lose either parent but especially your mother. I know--I've been there. But God's grace is sufficient.
