Kathy has always reminded me of my mom. She was so genuine and caring, it was nearly impossible not to respect her. She always asked about my family and kept up with the news of our life. The decoration around her desk was completely filled with pictures of her family, it was clear to see how much love she had for them. We had plans to meet for dinner at a local restaurant she said she wanted to try...I sure wish we had gotten around to that. My heart aches for her family who it was clear to see loved her very much. She was one of a kind and we all loved her. I'm gonna miss her positivity both in person and on Facebook.
