I was so saddened to hear of Kay's passing. Although she was my sister's sister-in-law, everyone in our family always considered her as "just one of us". We were sisters in every way. I am sorry that I will be unable to attend the services as my Health Care nurse will coming to change the dressing on my leg wound at 11:30, but rest assured my heart will be with all of the family, and I will be remembering Kay at that time. The hardest people to forget are those who have had an impact on your life, and Kay left everyone with a smile and a special memory. She will never be forgotten.

I am so sorry for your loss. It was an honor caring for your loved one and really getting to know her and her family. As a nurse this by far is the worst part of the job. I am glad she is a peace and suffers no longer. Heather DorseyThe Oaks at Bethesda
