Floyd R. Hogue

JAN 20, 1926 - AUG 31, 2015

Floyd R. Hogue, 89, of Zanesville, Ohio formerly of Adamsville, Ohio was called to his heavenly home Monday morning, August 31, 2015 at Adams Lane Care Center in Zanesville.

Born January 20, 1926 in Adamsville he was the youngest son of the late Alvin and Ethel (King) Hogue and was a 1943 graduate of Adamsville High School.

Floyd lived a full and giving life. As a young man he purchased the farm neighboring his boyhood home and began operating a dairy farm. That is where he spent his entire life until his retirement in 2010. He was involved in many activities throughout his life. He and his brother Carlos traveled to county fairs and other venues pulling tractors. When not involved in farming, he found time to cut pulp wood in the winter and to pick apples at Abele's, now Yeary's orchard.

Floyd and his family attended Bethesda Methodist Church and after its closing, they joined the Adamsville United Methodist Church. In recent years he loved attending services at Prospect United Methodist Church. He was a 75 year member of Eureka Grange and was also an active member of the Adamsville Progressive Council, Adamsville Fire Department and Muskingum County Farm Bureau. Floyd served on the Board of Education at both Adamsville Schools and Tri-Valley Schools and he was an Adams Township trustee for many years.

Surviving are four children, Dan (Diane) Hogue of Findlay, Ohio, Susie Thompson (Gil Swope) of Zanesville, Ron (Debra) Hogue of Adamsville and Sharon Ball of Zanesville; his grandchildren, Dennis Hogue, Matthew (Laura) Hogue, Jennifer (Jim) McInturf, Jerry Mohler, Roger (Theresa) Hogue, Kevin Hogue, Dale (Sonnet) Hogue and Jacob Ball. He was also proud to have eleven great grandchildren.

In addition to his parents he was preceded in death by his brother, Carlos Hogue and his wife, Waunita and his sister, Mildred Lapp and her husband, Neil. He also lost his beloved wife and the mother of his children, Jean Hogue in 1985. Later he found love

I was saddened to learn of the death of my friend from long ago. We grew up on neighboring farms and worked together in hay fields and orchards. Our acquaintance was renewed as I worked for the Ohio Farm Bureau and he was a great volunteer, board member, and membership worker for which he received many awards. You can be proud of your father, grandfather and dear friend.
