I had the honor of knowing your parents many years ago in Winchester, Virginia. I bought several framed photos from Jim, and I worked in Vacation Bible School with Ruth. She was such a dear, sweet-spirited, lovely woman - a joy to know! My sympathy to you in your great loss... Your whole family should know that your parents (and grandparents!) are fondly remembered. I pray God's comfort for all of you...

Not just my Grammy but my second mom. Her and grampy give me so many memories over the years. She led me to the Lord..and I thank her. She was so happy when I was baptized at Victory (more memories). Grammy has always been there to talk and to teach me. You will be with me as always till I see you in Haven.
