Jason was such a vital part of Fisher Catholic. Not only was he the Valedictorian, but he was the Captain of the Award-winning Fisher Catholic Quiz Team. He was an excellent captain and led us to State Finals. I also remember Jason's passion for golf. On pleasant, sunny days, he was more excited about being on the golf course than in the Quiz Team practice room. He will be missed sadly by all the Quiz Team members whom he led and encouraged.

My heart breaks for Jason and his family. I've known Jason since the good ol days at St. b's. Jason wasn't always just known for being the tallest in the class, but also one of the smartest, most kind and genuinely sweet people. Heaven definitely gained an angel on Saturday. I just pray for peace and comfort for his family.
