I met Wayne at a county extension sheep management seminar & instantly recognized he was an excellent stock dog man. He invited me to call sometime to see his dogs work. My friend & I took our Border Collies to his farm several times & he gave us valuable lessons, never wanting to accept any compensation for it. He was amazing in his ability & knowledge of stock dog training, & totally generous with his time & talent. To this day I use what he taught me, & my friend's & my favorite quotes from him: (if the stock handling goes awry--) "It was a disaAAASter...", & for a dog that is keen to work, "That dog has fire in his belly..." My friend Teresa & i are grateful we got to know Wayne; as she put it, "He was one of the good guys." We share your loss.

I remember Wayne coming to our farm and marking lambs for PLA. Also was the "middle man" for groups of western ewes we purchased thru PLA. Very nice gentleman to work with.
