Laura - we were so sorry to learn of Jim's passing. Years ago in the late 70s a young woman named Pam Cooper decided she wanted to be a square dance caller and Jim embraced me and invited me to many dances to call. Because of the opportunities he gave me early on I enjoyed many years of calling especially in eastern and southern Ohio. we shared lots of Mic time at numerous camp outs and lots of fun and laughter over the years. I was grateful for the friendship that you and he shared with me. I am blessed to be back into calling and dancing after many years away and will always remember fondly those fun times so long ago. God bless you and your family.
