Born February 8, 1926 in Cass Township of Muskingum County in Adams Mills, Ohio she was a daughter of the late James Blaine and Flora Alice (Tilton) Vickers and was a 1944 honor graduate of Dresden Jefferson High School. After high school Charlotte became a part of the cadet nurses corp at Bethesda Hospital in Zanesville, then later she went to work during the war for an insurance agency in downtown Columbus, Ohio. After the war and her marriage to William Larr she and her husband went to work at the newly opened Coshocton General Electric Plant where she obtained the position of secretary to the General Manager of the Plant.

Surviving is a daughter, Dixie Wyler and a grandson, Blaine William R. Wyler, both of Zanesville and a sister-in-law, Wilma Larr Brinkman of California.

In addition to her parents she was preceded in death by her husband William Larr, whom she married May, 1946 and who died April, 2010; an infant son Brett William Larr; two sisters, Doris
