She worked for over 27 years for Graham Equipment Company as payroll clerk and parts sales lady for farm equipment. She retired at age 66 and aspired to her love of growing flowers, and gave 10 years of service to the First Baptist Church of Dresden where she was a member.

Allan, Carolyn, Kathleen & Arlene, I remember your mother well, as we visited her and your family in Adams Mills years ago, and she frequently stopped in Coshocton to visit with my mother, her cousin, Virginia (Murrey) Lewis. (Daughter of Martha E. Murrey, who was a Heddleson.) Bertha Heddleson was my mom's aunt & my grandmother's sister.) I believe we are cousins! Anyway, I am so sorry to have just learned of your mother's passing. She lived a long and interesting life. I do hope our paths will cross with some of you again someday. May God bless you all.
