Bud was the kind of person you rarely find-completely honest. You always knew where he stood. You could always rely on him to tell you the truth. he was always there to help others and never seemed to want anything in return. He was a great friend.

What a shock to hear of Bud's passing. He was a gentle giant and friends to many people. I always took my taxes to him and I just wouldn't let anyone else but him to do them as I trusted him. He was my best man at my wedding back in 1971. He was my cousin and always will be even though he has passed on. May GOD hold a special place for him with his mother, father, and brother. My you rest in peace cousin. Ralph & Susan Howard
