While we still lived in Nashport, next door to the Minnicks, we always were the best of friends. Our older friends are slowly passing on, as we will someday. Thanks for their timely guidance in all matters that were proper and correct. We will miss them all.

As a child and as an adult, I enjoyed Aunt Grace and Uncle "Slim". He was so patriotic and proud to be an American. We will miss him not being at our Christmas dinner this year but he will be thought of.
