Jenny & Family: So sorry for your loss! I first met your mother in the mid 60s during a visit to your home. Joe and I worked together at Kaiser. He was a good mentor to me. Joe had an excellent reputation for his skill and drive! Although we didn't socialize that much I recall a couple who were very into life and dedicated to joy and happiness. May you feel the hand of God as you handle remaining affairs, and may He comfort you today and always. That's my prayer! Know that Joseph and Rosalie occupy a very special place in our memories of people we have been privileged to know.
