My stepmother, a strong woman who loved babies, probably changed more diapers, than anyone that I know. She watched my sons. We had good times watching wrestling, Bingo (She had to watch my cards) Just thinking about stopping to see you, sadly I waited too long. You were proud of your kids whom are all smart, good hearted, compassionate people. I love you. We were shy to say (that) Thanks for the memories. You're love of ballgames was obvious too. Thank you for loving my Dad. May God bless you. Your priorities taught me that material things are not important. Robin

To Bill and Rose's extended family...I was shocked today when I learned of Rose's passing. Despite a lot of years and many miles having passed since the last time I saw Rose or you, Bill, you are still family. I've lifted each of you to our Heavenly Father for his blessing and comfort as you deal with Rose's passing.
