Gino, Will be so missed, he was so instrumental for so many activities at the Sons of Italy Lodge, As a past Lodge officer he would give me advice on how things should be done during my presidency at the Lodge and I always valued his direction and leadership over the years of our friendship. Gino will be solely missed. David Angelo Corsi

Only knew Gino for a few years at Kyber Run Golf course but he shared a few stories and many golf balls. We will miss seeing him mowing on the "back forty" as he called it.
