To the family of Wanda - I knew her for the time we worked together at Essex "on the hill", (6 years) She was a great lady & a friend from the day we met & talked about her being in the same hospital room with my mother some years before. She always had a smile on her face unless George was messing with her (& everybody else). I hadn't seen her for some time but I am very saddened by her passing. Hopefully we will all see her again when we join Jesus in heaven. We are very sorry for your loss of such a great lady. Rick & Debbie Norris
