Mitchell George Marczewski

MAY 12, 1937 - JUL 22, 2013

Mitchell George Marczewski, 76, went home to be with his Savior, Jesus Christ, on July 22, 2013. He was a retired sheet metal worker for National Acme Co. in Cleveland, a major manufacturer of machine tools. For the past five years he lived in Nashport with his son, daughter-in-law and grandchildren.

He was born May 12, 1937 in Kirkland Lake, Ontario, a small gold mining camp. His parents, Jacob and Anna (Lipiec) Marczewski, immigrated to Canada from Poland sometime after World War I. Jacob worked in the local gold mines and Anna took care of their six children. In the late 1950's, Mitch immigrated to the United States and joined the Air Force, eventually serving as a crew chief on B-52 bombers based in Texas and Mississippi. He also served in the Strategic Air Command's 75th Bombardment Squadron at Loring AFB (Maine).

He is survived by four children: Mitchell C. Marczewski (Sharon) of Nashport, Gregory Marczewski/Rick Pierce of Willoughby, Susan Marczewski of Willowick and John Marczewski of Wickliffe, plus several siblings and cousins residing in Cleveland and Canada.

He was especially proud of his grandchildren: Jason, John Jr., Michael, Mitch Jr., Jane, Andrew and Katelyn; and many nieces and nephews.

He enjoyed talking about airplanes, listening to polka music, and was honored to be called "Dziadzio" by anyone ("Grandpa" in Polish).

He came to know Christ later in life and prayed that his family would also know Him in a personal way.

A private family service will be held with burial at Irville Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to any church or outreach that preaches the gospel.

My sympathies to all the family. I have fond memories of Mitch from the time he worked at National Acme with my father, Sam Barresi. He came to the house a few times and we went to yours for dinner. When John was born, I babysat you three older ones daytime until your father came home. I heard something in the news about Canada just now and your father's name was in my mind. God bless your father!

I know it is hard to have to say good bye to "Dziadzio". We must remember that this is not where we belong. We belong in heaven in the presence of the Father. What a glorious day thing it must be to be in a new body able to fully worship. I know you all will miss him but share your memories and rejoice in his new life. You will all be in my prayers.
