My sympathy to all at Mrs. Miller's passing. With her sisters, she was/is one of a long line of her relatives I knew around Coshocton. However, I go back a way by remembering her father, Mr. Sarbaugh, as he walked past my homeplace (sometimes in the middle of the night!) in the north end of Canal Lewisville to fire the coal furnace at our (old) church building, and mow the whole cemetery (often with his brother) with push mowers! Your mother was one of along line of folks who were/are "the salt of the earth." Ed Duling (Canal Lewisville)

Dear Larry, Gloria and families. Our sincere condolences. We have so many good memories of the times at the farm and down at the cabin. Times when your Mom and Dad welcomed all of us kids, your friends and classmates, and made us feel like family. Mary Jo and I still fondly recall the time we were in San Antonio walking along the Riverwalk with our grandkids, this lady passes by, turns around and says "Hey!". It was your Mom! What a small world. Now she has gone to a better one. God Bless you all. Love & Blessings
