Marsha.Terry and Jerry. Our family sends our condolences to you, we know and understand your loss. The one thing that keeps us going since Bob and Gregs passing is that we know we will again see them in Heaven throughout eternity and that makes the waiting all worthwhile, The dementia/parkinsons that took Bob from us is a horrible disease because in a sense they mentally leave us before they actually pass. With Greg though he drown and we didn't really get to say good-bye to him either. You must hold on to the memories of a dear mother (and father) until you see them again. God bless each of you.
