I can't believe it has been 7 years. I have had memories more frequently lately if my bff. Have shared a lot of fun memories with my grandchildren recently. Am reminded of our times together every time I look up see some of her miniature glassware collection I was able to buy at her estate auction. My favorite memory to tell is when we were fresh out of highschool and both got hired at the dogfood factory. We were original packing room hires so there were lots of delays during that first day. When they raised the garage door a few feet to cool down area she ducked under the door and quit without a word to anyone. The boss asked where did your friend go, I guess she was done with dogfood! lol♥♥♥

What an amazing lady Judy was. I worked with her for a short time at MVHC. It didn't take long to figure out what a loving, compassionate, caring person she was. Judy always had a beautiful smile on her face...and ALWAYS willing to lend a helping hand. She will be missed terribly. I'm thankful for the friendship we had. I will cherish the memories forever. Rest in Peace my friend.....
