My family and I were shocked and saddened to have heard of Dave's passing. Dave was a good, caring, and kind person, whom we cared for very much. We attended the same church with Dave and his family for many years. During those years, he displayed a true display of walking a servant's life for Christ. He was a Deacon of the church, and he honored Christ by fulfilling the requirements of a Deacon, a husband, a father, and a grandfather. He did many things for the church and the church families, and I know for my family many times. He was someone who walked the talk. We will truly miss him.

To the Acheson Family, I am sorry to hear about the loss of Dave. What a kind, gentle spirit he had. I worked at Licco when he was a bus asst., driver, and mechanic. I was so happy to see him again at LC transit!! He always could make you smile and he certainly loved all of his family!! His eyes would brighten when he would talk about those grandbabies!! Heaven has gained an angel, no doubt!! May you find comfort in the memories he has left you. Prayers to all of you, Krista (Dixon) Davis
