I miss you Grandpa. I cannot believe eight years are already gone. You would be so impressed at how much the kids have learned. I hope you gave a big slobbery, 5:00 shadow kiss to Mom when she arrived. Give Grammy a big one, too.

Now that the old guard has passed into heaven, it remains for our generation to follow the examples you have left us. Although this is a Herculean task, and we try our best, we will never be able to fill your shoes. We miss you Uncle Rob! Say hi to Esther for me. (She'll get the joke)

I will always remember Uncle Rob as a mountain of a man...broad shouldered, square jawed and Hollywood handsome. He always had a smile on his face and a deep hearty laugh, and he always called me "burr head".

We were very to hear of Bob's death. Thank you Roberta for letting us know. Our family all remember He and all your family and our good years at Marseilles. I am sure from our last visit that he was ready to go. He missed so much not being able to ramble and observe the animals and plants around him. Paul, Barbara, Christy & Teresa Rogers

Bob and Ethel were both nice people to know the many years they were with us at Perryton United Methodist church. He was a great adult Sunday School teacher always added more to each lesson. Bob did a great job with being our communion steward after Ethel died for many years. Thoughts and prayers to the family.

Thank you for showing me how to love all creatures (even the creepy, crawly ones), to find fossils in sandstone, to appreciate art, to identify constellations and to shoot a bow and arrow...and thank you for taking endless sled rides down the hill and enduring the many "teddy bear" chants as you jumped rope. I love you, Grandpa.
