Lueva was a 1940 graduate of Lash High School and she attended Merideth Business College. She had been employed at the Ohio Plastics Company in Frazeyburg, Essex Wire plant on Ceramic Avenue, and Stambaugh's of Zanesville. She and her father provided audio system services for indoor and outdoor programs through Lauer Sound System. Lueva was a performer. She danced and was a teacher for Marjorie Holzschuher Sellers, who recommended her to the dance team of Collette and Barry. During the 1940's she danced for the team on a night club circuit where she met many famous entertainers; Jackie Gleason, Danny Kaye, Sid Caesar, Imogene Coca, Artie Shaw, Tommy and Jimmy Dorsey, Victor Mature and Henry Fonda to name a few.

She performed in the Frazeyburg Lion's Club shows with her children and she sang tenor in Frazeyburg United Methodist church choir. She was a former choir director at Frazeyburg United Methodist Church and at Forest Avenue Presbyterian Church of Zanesville. Lueva was bass singer in the OUZ chorus with Marcia Herman, the Greater Zanesville Chorus with Glenville Thomas, and the Sweet Adeline Chorus. She was part of the Zane Jill's Barbershop Quartet in which she also sang bass.

Lueva was a hard working person who was a great mother, dedicated daughter to her parents and grandparents, and a reliable friend to her family. She enjoyed reading and was talented at crocheting, especially afghans.

Surviving is a daughter and son in-law Hinda and James Ardrey of Nashport; a son and daughter in-law, Leon and Ebba Lauer of Nashport; four grandchildren, Jennifer
